Food Packaging Requirements

- Use Zip-lock bags of appropriate size.

- Kringla, Krumkake: larger 1/bag; medium, 2/bag
- Breads: bake in small loaf pans, use plastic wrap
- Puff Pastry, Coffee Cake, Cinnamon Rolls: we will cut at the booth.
- Use non-returnable containers to bring your contributions to the booth—put your name on them so we can check you off the list.

Waverly members, contact Jon or Joel to drop off food contributions if you need help delivering them.

Sunday Morning Special

In order to provide our Sunday morning roll and coffee customers with a good quality roll, we are asking all who contribute rolls to use the Rhodes brand frozen rolls. You can find these in most grocery stores. They are easy to make. Just place them in a pan (use disposable aluminum pans). Place them in the oven to rise overnight (8-10 hours or so) and bake them. They present just like a roll from your favorite bakery.

In a previous POSTEN an error was made. Please frost the rolls before you bring them to the booth. Thank you!

Secretary's Notes, May 21, 2019

Solglimt's Syttende Mai celebration was called to order by President Keith Jorgensen on Tuesday, May 21, at the Cedar Falls Woman's Club.

The anthems, Pledge of Allegiance, and table prayer were followed by the introduction of guests Lynne Ensworth, Jean Hansmeier and Trudy Sweet, all of Cedar Falls; Gary and Lori Heidt-Johnson and Luke Jenson, of Waterloo; and Inex Boyken, Des Moines, who accompanied her husband Quintin, the evening's speaker.

Sunshine Chair Bev Haugen reported the deaths of three former members. A moment of silence was observed in their memory.

Following dinner, those celebrating birthdays in May were recognized. Special greetings were extended to Howard Braden on the occasion of his 99th birthday in April.

Dr. Duane Lindberg and Cathy Schuhmacher led in singing O Lutefisk and Nidelven.

Keith announced that sixteen members and signed up to go to the Amana Colonies for lunch and a play at the Old Creamery Theatre on Thursday, May 23.

Social Director Robin Voster introduced Quintin Boyken, Norway's Honorary Consul in Iowa. Mr. Boyken, a Des Moines attorney, was appointed consul in 1990. His duties include providing assistance to the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and to Norwegian citizens in the state of Iowa.

His program "Norway Today" which included slides, touched on a number of topics such as Government, Economy (including a brief history of the oil industry), Foreign Policy, Diplomacy and Human Rights. In closing, he shared some recent news stories out of Norway. A most interesting Question and Answering followed.

Chris Johnson passed along a request for maintaining uniformity in the cinnamon rolls served at the Lodge Booth. (See details elsewhere in the POSTEN.)

(Secretary's notes continue on the next page)

Guest Luke Jenson was the winner of the drawing for a Lodge Dinner.

The winner of the POSTEN Reader's Contest drawing was Bill Hanson. His award, a cherry pie baked by Gloria Tehven, will be delivered as soon as the cherries on the tree in Tehven's backyard are ready for picking. This is the second win for Bill. (Editor's note: Bill later changed his mind and ordered a rhubarb pie---)

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Eunice Becker, Secretary

Sturgis Falls Coordinator Joel Johnson requests that in order to maintain uniformity, those bringing cinnamon rolls to the Lodge booth during SF should use the Rhodes brand of frozen cinnamon rolls found at most grocery stores.

Church Basement Ladies

On Thursday, May 23rd, several Solglimt Lodge members ventured to Amana for lunch at the Ox Yoke Inn and then to the Old Creamery Theatre and "Church Basement Ladies".

It was a great performance with some pathos and enough comedy. The story line was about a young "church basement lady" Signe, who has been dating a 'non-Lutheran' boy, and one of the older ladies, Vivian, is very unhappy. Vivian gets on Signe's case, telling her all the reasons she needs to marry a 'fine-Lutheran' boy. Signe's mother, another one of the "basement ladies", stays pretty much neutral through all the back-and-forth, and Signe tries to ignore Vivian.

But, come the last scene, we find Signe has decided to marry that "fine Lutheran" boy. However, on the day of the wedding, she is confused and upset; does she really want to get married? The final scene is between Signe and Vivian, where Vivian gives Signe gentle assurance and counseling and all is well between them.

The play ends with the Ladies (including Signe) on their way to the sanctuary and the wedding.
